10 ORDER DENYING APPLICATION FOR LICENSURE

11 The application of Ignacio Acosta-Martinez, CRT (Applicant), for a license to practice 12 respiratory care in the State of Nevada came before the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners 13 (Board) at its regularly scheduled meeting on Friday, March 5, 2021. The meeting of the Board was 14 held exclusively through telephonic means pursuant to the Emergency Directives issued by the 15 Governor of Nevada, and a quorum was present. The Applicant appeared telephonically in pro per.

16 At the appearance, proof was made to the satisfaction of the Board that the application ought to 17 be denied.

18 IT IS SO ORDERED that the application be, and hereby is, DENIED because the application 19 contained false, misleading, inaccurate and incomplete statements in violation of NRS 630.304(1), 20 which constitutes sufficient grounds for denying licensure.

25 <sup>1</sup> NRS 630.200 Delay or denial of application for license to practice medicine: Grounds; notice; appeal. 1) 26 The Board may deny an application for a license to practice medicine for any violation of the provisions of this chapter or 27 regulations of the Board. 2) The Board shall notify an applicant of any deficiency which prevents any further action on 28 the application or results in the denial of the application. The applicant may respond in writing to the Board concerning any deficiency and, if the applicant does so, the Board shall respond in writing to the contentions of the applicant. 3) Any unsuccessful applicant may appeal to the Board if the applicant files the appeal within 90 days after the date of the rejection of the application by the Board. Upon appeal, the applicant has the burden to show that the action of the Board is erroneous. [12:169:1949; 1943 NCL § 4107.12] — (NRS A 1973, 510; 1985, 2231; 2009, 2955)
