Clark County Medical Society is based upon the following three pillars:

- 1) Service to our community
- 2) Service to our physicians
- 3) Advocacy

Service to our community:

- Quarterly “Medical Specialty Rapid Rounds” to provide an opportunity for medical students to interact with physicians from different potential fields of specialty interest
- Expanding secondary education involvement in high schools and middle schools to create shadowing and mentoring activities for young people interested in medicine
- Participating in local career fairs, hosting free education at public libraries, harness social media to address public health education, created a patient/family website
- 6th Annual Virtual Research Symposium, February 2026

Service to our physicians:

- Collaborative efforts with other entities to provide education, networking opportunities, and member benefits
- Continuing Education
 - On Demand CME – available through CCMS website:
 - Suicide Prevention & Awareness
 - Back to School: Vaccination Requirements and Best Practices
 - Burnout Prevention Series
 - Live Activities:
 - A.I. in Healthcare Series
- Quarterly Networking Events – welcoming new licensed physicians to our community

Advocacy:

- Multipronged initiatives advocating for patients and members
